A MISERABLE ATTEMPT TO PREJU-

The Democracy in some quarters is muc given to lying about the Republican ticket. The attempt is being made to show that foreign-born citizens were pur posefully excluded from the ticket. Of course this is the veriest rot, and besides is antrue, since Mr. Reichart is of German extraction, while Mr. Hart is a native of Great Britain. The truth is the Republican Convention chose men for candidacy wholly regardless of nationality, and solely upon the ground of fitness and representative character. It scarcely lies in the mouth of a party that has put an old-time Know-Nothing at the head of its ticket to say a word about foreign influence. We have and should have no distinctions between nationalities in American citizenship There is no more vicious, humiliating and generally damnable doctrine, than that which holds that men of various nationalities must be put upon tickets to "catch the votes" of citizens of like nationality If there is an Irishman, German, Frenchman, Italian or other citizen of foreign birth who does not feel insulted by the bare suggestion that his vote is to be easily caught by placing his countryman on a ticket, thereby implying that he is incapable of a vote of conviction and reason, he ought to be disfranchised. We are a peo ple of mixed blood, a nation of foreigners, when it comes to that. No one of us bu can trace his lineage back, over but a brie record to foreign sources. We want ne Irish-Americans in this country, but simply Americans. It is a title of nationality not to be tagged on to any other and then parted in the middle, withou offense to every right-thinking man. To say to an Irishman, "vote this or that ticket because a man is upon it who wa born in the country from which you emi grated to this," is to insult the voter and slap him in the face with the imputation that he is the tool of prejudice, and an un reasoning being. If our tickets are to be made up to represent foreign nationalitie there is not one of the seventy or eighty made up, that may not rightfully claim representation." We have always sup posed that tickets were made of candi dates to be elected to represent the Ameri can system and nothing else. If, however the doctrine is to obtain that officers are to represent Prussia, Austria, Russia, Ire land, England, Norway, France, Italy Greece, Spain, Mexico, and fifty or sixt other nationalities-each one having a good a right to representation as the other he American system of elections will vicious of contests between nationalitie for the right to rule. It is clear evidence when a man is heard shouting "give the Germans representation, give the Irisl representation, give this, that or the other tionality representation on the ticket. The honest, fair-minded and self-respect ing man wants good citizenship and con petency in the make up of the party tick ts, and if it happens that all the candi dates are Irish, or German, or French, or Spanish born, or are all born upon Ameri can soil, the fact cuts no figure in the mat trionsly endeavoring to work up the sup posed prejudices of foreign born citizens against the Republican ticket, count with out their host. Clunie Opera House. The Opera House was crowded last night witness the first appearance here of Miss Carrie Swain. Very soon after the doors were opened the family circle was filled even beyond standing-room capacity, and soon after the lower part of the house was filled also. It was the largest Mondaynight audience yet seen in the Opera House. Miss Swain appeared in a piece of no literary merit and of strong leaning to the Bowery order, but without the grossness usual to plays that gain that title. The plot of "Cad, the Tomboy," hinges upon the scheme of a cruel uncle to deprive his brother's widow and abildon the scheme of a cruel uncle to deprive his brother's widow. brother's widow and children of their property, the imprisonment by him of the widow and mother, the adventures of Cad disguised in male attire in righting her mother's wrongs and securing the punishment of her oppressors. Of course this class of plot gives the heroine broad opportunity for manifestation oversatility. Miss Swain is young, petite versatility. Miss Swain is young, peace, comely, and her style is her own by right of original discovery. She dances well, sings nicely, is natural in action, wholly unrestrained, and yet modest, winning, and possesses the art of getting close to the audience—of interesting the spectators immediately in her She rights and runs over ately in her. She ripples and runs over with laughter at one moment, and stills the house the next with pathos, and commands its sympathies at will. Her acting is vigorous, and of that vital quality that conveys something of its strength and life to the auditor. ALL QUIET FOR ONE WEEK .- The REC-RD-UNION yesterday plainly set forth the just complaint of the people against the ill-advised practice of the managements of both theaters reserving whole blocks of seats to be sold as reserves after the doors open. Against this practice here, howeve auch tolerated elsewhere, this public has always protested. We stated that if the re-serve sections were advertised as such, and for a distinct price, there would be no grumbling. The Clunie Opera House management has wisely taken this view of the matter, and made its dress circle a reserved section with a distinct price, as is announced elsewhere, with a reserve price for sittings in other parts of the house. This removes all cause for complaint in that dithere is no charge for reserved seats. So for at least one week all will be quiet on the

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SACRAMENTO, July 31, 1886. WHEREAS, THE LEGISLATURE OF THE

State of California, at its Twenty-sixth ession, beginning on the Ath day of January, two Houses of said Legislature voting in favor stitution of the State of California to the Qualithereof, proposed the following amendment of Sections One, Eight, Ten and Eleven of Article Thirteen, of the Constitution of the State of submitted to be voted upon, by ballot, by the United States, this State, or any county of municipal corporation within this State, shall be exempt from taxation. Growing vines and fruit trees shall be deemed to be and shall be assessed and taxed as a part of the realty; and, provided further, that railroads shall be taxed as provided in Section Ten of this article; and, provided further, that the Legislature may provide for the exemption from taxation of ships and vessels owned and registered or enrolled in this State, or may tax such ships and vessels on their gross or net earnings, in lieu of an ad valorem tax. The Legislature may also provide except in case of credits secured by mortgage or trust deed, for a deduction from credits of debts due to bona fide residents of this State.

ship, or district in which it is situated, in the manner provided by law. Every corporation and person owning or operating a railroad, of any portion thereof, in this State, shall, on obserore the first day of July of each year, pay to the State Treasurer an annual tax of two and a half per cent upon the gross earnings, earnewithin this State, of such railroad, for the year ending upon the thirty-first day of December ext preceding, which tax shall be in lieu of all other State and county taxes upon the frauchies, business, right of way, roadway, roadbed rails, rolling stock, fences, stations and theis appurtenances, and upon ferryboats, when or nd declared by the State Board of Equalization, nder such rules and regulations as may be pre-cribed by said Board; provided, however, that he Legislature may at any time pass laws pre-beribing said rules and regulations. In all cases there railroads are situated partly within this tate and partly without this state, and partly without this state, the gross and all earnings thereof shall be ascertained and extermined by taking. rmined by taking:

First-The gross earnings which, during the year last preceding, have been earned wholly within this State.

Second—The gross earnings which, during the same year, have been earned partly within this State and partly without this state, which shall be ascertained by apportioning such earnings between this State and other States or Territories, in the proportion which the number of miles of such railroad situated in this State, and used in making such earnings, bears to be whole number of miles thereof, by the use of which such earnings have been made. The proportion of interstate earnings thus ascertained shall be added to the earnings made wholly within the State, and the total thus obtained shall be taken and deemed to be the gross earnings of such railroads for all purposes of assessment and taxation. For every purpose of this section, except for the purpose of ascertaining the proportion of interstate earnings to be added to the earnings made wholly within this State, all railroads operated as one system shall be treated as one road. One-third of the tax paid by corporations or persons owning or operating railroads under the provisions of this section shall become part of the General Fund of this State, and two thir is thereof shall be paid to the county or counties in which said railroad is situated, in proportion to the length of the railroad operated in the several counties. Transportation and Markets.

Cheap and rapid transportation is of the utmost importance to those who are both producers and consumers. It cheapens all that he buys and enhances the price of all he produces. The "LANGFORD COLONY" is most advantage-ously shunted in this respect. It is between two railroads that both connect with steamboats three sons. He was one of the leading that run from the Sacramento and San Joaquin points to the Golden Gate. This gives the cheapest freight and passenger rates for the distance on this Coast. The markets for all kinds of products are good. The Canneries, Wineries and grown, Dairy Products, Fowls, Eggs and Vegetables find a ready sale. Every acre of this land when in bearing Fruit Trees or Vines will net $100 per acre. For further particulars apply to
